CONF005759

Hanson gets 3 years in prison

A former Boy Scout official from Russiaville was sentenced to three years in prison Wednesday after he pleaded guilty to a Class D felony charge of child molestation.

James A. Hanson, 47, 1050 W. Road 150 South, received the maximum prison sentence for a Class D conviction after he admitted in Howard Circuit Court that he had molested boys who were under his supervision in a Boy Scout troop.

Hanson pleaded guilty to one Class D felony count that accused him of fondling or touching a youth between August 1989 and February 1990.

According to testimony during the hearing, Hanson was suspected of molesting 28 boys on a "frequent basis," and admitted to having sexual contact with 12 youths.

In imposing the sentence, Judge R. Alan Brubaker rejected a probation officer's recommendation of 18 months of incarceration and participation in a Tipton County work release program, followed by 18 months of probation.

Brubaker said that although there were mitigating factors in the case, they were far outweighed by aggravating factors. The factors, according to the judge, included providing sexually explicit material to young boys to engage them in sexual activity.

Brubaker said Hanson had violated the trust of the boys who had been placed in his care, their families and had also violated the trust of his church.

The judge said that based on the probable cause information submitted in the case and the presentence investigation report, there appeared to have been "a series of violations over a number of years."

Brubaker wondered aloud if there had been repeated offenses and why the state had only filed one or two charges as Class D felonies. He said if the case against Hanson was serious, it should have been treated that way. The way the case was charged made it difficult for him to impose sentence, Brubaker said.

Along with the three-year prison term, Brubaker ordered Hanson to pay for any counseling alleged victims might require, up to a total of $10,000.

Hanson has been identified as the former scoutmaster of Troop

519. He was charged with two Class D felony counts of child molestation last August through an investigation conducted by the Howard County Sheriff Department.

Thomas E. VanTyle, 26, of Russiaville, a former assistant scoutmaster for Troop 519, was also charged with two Class D felony counts of child molestation as a result of the investigation. He pleaded guilty to one of the charges and was ordered to serve three years of supervised probation.

During VanTyle's sentencing hearing Feb. 20, Brubaker said he suspended a three-year prison term because of the circumstances of the case, and because VanTyle was also a "victim" of molestation. According to testimony provided during the hearing, VanTyle was molested as a child by Hanson, who was then the scoutmaster of the troop.

The molestation of VanTyle began at age 11, when he was a member of Troop 519, and the incidents continued up to the time he was arrested on the Circuit Court charges, defense attorney John C. Wood said.

Dear Joe:

We wondered if the legal action has now been completed. We need this information for making certain that Mr. Hansen cannot register in the future with the Boy Scouts of America.

Please send us newspaper clippings or court records, which would substantiate the outcome of the legal action.

We would also like to have more information concerning Mr. Hansen. You did not give us his weight, height, or race. We really need this information, if we are to be able to identify him later should he attempt registration in some other location.

Thanks for your help in completing this file.

Ex-Boy Scout leaders

Two face felony child molestation charges

By Mike Fallick
Tribune staff writer

Two former Boy Scout leaders from Rustaville face felony child molestation charges in Howard Circuit Court.

The charges were filed Monday against Thomas E. VanTyle, 25, 275 E. Main St., Rustaville, and James A. Hanson, 46, 1050 W. Road 150 South, as a result of an investigation by the Howard County Sheriff Department.

Today, Joseph Vollmer, executive director of the Sagamore Council of Boy Scouts of America, said his office was involved in the lengthy investigation which led to the charges, but said he did not have specific information about the particular cases against the men.

Vollmer said Boy Scouts of America supplied registration material to the sheriff department during the course of the investigation, and met with parents to explain their rights and to discuss their fears.

He said VanTyle and Hanson were associated with Troop 519 chartered by the New London Friends Church. The Boy Scout memberships of the two men were terminated several months ago, according to Vollmer.

VanTyle is charged with two Class D felony counts of child molestation. The first count alleges he had sexual contact with a minor during June of this year. The second count alleges VanTyle had sexual contact with another youth during the same time period.

Hanson also faces two Class D felony child molestation charges. One of the charges alleges Hanson had sexual contact with a minor during the spring of 1990. In the second count, Hanson is charged with sexual contact with a minor from August 1989 through February 1990.

This morning, the sheriff department had no record of VanTyle or Hanson being arrested.

2 former scoutmasters charged in molestations

By SCOTT L. MILEY
STAR STAFF WRITER

Two former Boy Scout leaders in Kokomo each have been charged with two counts of child molesting and are suspects in alleged molestations involving 35 other boys, Howard County sheriff's investigators said Tuesday.

Warrants are expected to be issued today from Howard Superior Court for Thomas Vantyle, 25, of Russiaville and James Hanson, 46, of western Howard County.

Both men have admitted their involvement in 39 molestations of teen-age Scouts and non-Scouts, said Sheriff's Lt. Don Howard.

"They have both been cooperative in our investigation," Howard said.

The allegations, which date to 1978, surfaced in March when a youth reported a molestation attempt to his parents. However, the statute of limitations has run out on many of the allegations, and the Howard County prosecutor's office is expected to pursue only the two charges that each faces.

The charges against Hanson, a factory employee, involve the molestations of youths not involved in Scouting. Vantyle, a restaurant employee, is charged with molesting one 15-year-old Scout after a troop meeting and molesting a 15-year-old non-Scout.

Hanson and Vantyle were suspended from Scouting in June after allegations arose against them, said Dewey Long, finance director for the Boy Scouts of America Sagamore Council in Kokomo.

Hanson had served as scoutmaster for Troop 519 before passing those duties to his former assistant scoutmaster, Vantyle.

The troop now has about 20 members and none of those are believed to have been molested, Long said.

Counseling has been offered to the victims and their families through the Scouting program, Long said.

Also, the council has adopted a nationally used awareness program that involves a detailed questionnaire for potential leaders and offers ways to detect the potential for sexual abuse, Long said.
